

Precise Time and Frequency Solutions

Brandywine Communications Inc. Celebrates Receiving the 2019 Supplier Excellence Award from Raytheon Integrated Defense Systems

TUSTIN—Brandywine Communications, a leading manufacturer of time and frequency equipment, has been awarded the supplier excellence award from Raytheon Integrated Defense Systems. Brandywine’s timing and frequency products are vital assets for ensuring that Raytheon IDS can continue to serve its mission of ensuring defense readiness for the United States.

Brandywine Communications fulfills the defense and aerospace markets with their high-reliability and high availability timing and frequency products. From their flexible modular systems like the Modular Master Clock, to ruggedized frequency distribution amplifiers, Brandywine Communications continues to serve the aerospace and defense market’s timing needs.

Founded in 1995, Brandywine is a leading designer and manufacturer of mission critical time and frequency systems for the military and infrastructure markets. The Company operates manufacturing facilities in the United States and United Kingdom and its products are sold globally.

